Matt discussed the upcoming Pumpkin Tour to the Redmond, Oregon area, scheduled for October 14-16, 2016. The 3-day event includes 2 private car collections and memorabilia, winery and lodging is available at Eagle Crest, including cabins and lodge.

The Packard Proving Grounds has secured many boxes of memorabilia from various libraries and is in the process of digitalizing the information.

Clayton Fouts, a long time member of the Club, is not well and is in hospice. The family has asked Matt to help market his 1949 Packard.

Monte mentioned the Ferndale, California Tour scheduled for Labor Day Weekend, September 2-4, 2016. The 3-day event includes tours of Victoria Houses and enjoying cars, the beautiful town and hotel. Howard mentioned that George Potter was born and raised in Ferndale. He also said if the hotel is full, which is likely, there is a reasonable hotel with inside restaurant about 20 miles south in Scotia, which he recommends.

George Chobin is still working on staying alive, he said. He recently stopped at Tom Crooks, who is down to 20 cars, has sold his building, and is winding down the business. George had visited the LeMay Museum in Tacoma and said his former restaurant on Barnes Road, now known as Si Señor, is open again and doing well.

Dennis mentioned he had been to Rancho Mirage, California, and attended a private auto show, Iron Gate, which was open to the public and was worthwhile seeing.

Monte mentioned that the restaurant in Newberg, From Russia with Love, is now open and serving authentic Russian food, which is very good.

The meeting adjourned.
